OPEN EVENINGS.

A CONSERVATIVE VICTORY.
Excitement Over the Loss of a Home-Rule Seat.

Tory Wins in the Brigg Division of Lincolnshire.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—In the election, held yesterday, for a member of Parliament to represent the North Lindsey or Brigg Division of Lincolnshire, Mr. J.
H. Richardson, a Conservative, was elected, polling 4,377 votes to 4,300 votes polled by Mr. Reckitt, his Liberal opponent.

This Conservative victory causes much excitement in London to-day. The political clubs are crowded with people who are eagerly discussing the victory.
There is no doubt that the result of this election, following so soon after the victory of the Hon. Charles Maule Ramsay, Conservative, in Forfarshire, will greatly weaken the Government.

The defeat of the Liberal candidate in Lincolnshire is generally taken to be a rebuttal of the Irish and anti-Irish policy of the Government. The Irish question was made a special feature of the Brigg campaign, many Irish members of Parliament, on both sides, taking the stump.

At the last election Mr. S. D. Waddy, Q. C., Home Ruler, defeated Mr. Richardson, who was elected yesterday. Consequently the Conservatives gain another seat in Parliament.

tends to use Vigilant as a household next season in England while racing his new twenty-rater.

British Minister Gosling Recalled from Nicaragua.

(Special Cable Dispatch to The World.) MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Dec. 7.—Minister Gosling leaves for England next week.

Telegrams from London to-day report that the negotiations between Envoy Barrios and Britain's Foreign Secretary are nearly completed. Senior Barrios announces that a successor to Minister Gosling has been chosen and will be appointed soon.

The Government has ordered Barrios not to acknowledge Hatch as a British Consul, as he never was so regarded here.

Mr. Gosling's friends assert that he has invariably acted under instructions.

French Newspapers Dwell Kindly on the Memory of De Lesseps.
PARIS, Dec. 8.—The death of Count Ferdinand de Lesseps at La Chaux-de-fond, yesterday, exclusively announced by the Associated Press early yesterday afternoon, was not unexpected. Since the Panama revelations the great engineer has been in a state of comatose somnolence. His death was calm and painless.

The French newspapers this morning dwell upon the contrast between his brilliant career and his melancholy end, saying that he contributed to extend abroad the greatness and influence of France. They add that the work in which he failed will be forgotten, and that the people will only see that which he accomplished.

Saunderson, the Alleged "Gentleman Murderer," Remanded.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—Reginald Saund-erson, the nephew of Col. Saunderson, the Orange leader, who is charged with the murder, on Nov. 28, of the unfortunate woman Dawes, whose body was found with throat cut, in the Holland Villas Road, Kensington, was arraigned today at the Hammersmith Police Court.
There was much curiosity to see the prisoner, who is a tall, dark, well-built youth of gentlemanly appearance. He seemed to be extremely depressed.

A letter, which the police received from Dublin, giving details of how the girl was murdered, was read. This letter was signed, "Jack the Ripper on the Job," is said to be in the prisoner's handwriting.

After formal evidence had been presented the prisoner was remanded.

Forged School Bonds Were from Western States.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—The school bonds, a number of which are believed to be forgeries, which have been placed in England to the amount of $10,000 and in Ireland to the amount of $10,000, purported to come chiefly from Dakota, Colorado, Wyoming and Nebraska.
There are also a number of farm mortgages from the same districts. The bonds are of all amounts, from $100 upward, although many of the school bonds are for $1,000 each.

Reduced to the Banks for Wearing Crepes at Kossuth's Funeral.

VIENNA, Dec. 8.—Lieut. Leybold, an officer in the Army Reserve, was tried by court-martial to-day for wearing crepe on his arm at the funeral of the late Louis Kossuth, the Hungarian patriot, in defiance of an army order forbidding officers to do so.

Lieut. Leybold was in civilian dress at the time, and he claimed that he acted as a private citizen and as a marshal in the funeral ceremonies. The court reduced the Lieutenant to the ranks.

TILLMAN ACCUSED.

Ex-Governor Charged with Receiving Rebates on State Whiskey.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 8.—B. T.
Perry, a South Carolinian, residing in Washington, has written a letter to J.
W. Ashley, a member of the General Assembly, charging ex-Gov. Tillman with dishonest transactions while Governor. The letter says:

"Tillman denied at Union during the campaign that he had ever received the rebate of seven cents a gallon on the whiskey he bought from the Whiskey Trust. I am credibly informed that he did receive that rebate, and a check was sent him for the amount, and he returned the check and asked them to send the money in currency by express; that the money was sent and was received by Tillman, amounting to many thousands dollars, that ought to have gone to the credit of the taxpayers."

"Furthermore, I am informed that the railroad company that transported the liquor paid Tillman a rebate on the freight, and that is the reason why Tillman is afraid of it."

"There is no doubt that Tillman and John Evans got a good slice out of the $10,000 given to fund in funding the State debt. Why don't you demand a committee to investigate these things?" Tillman's friends deny all these charges.

Supt. Lee, of the Post-Office, Has Been Suspended.

Henry J. Lee, Superintendent of the Register Department in the General Post-Office has been suspended.

Supt. Lee's suspension is one of the results of a general overhauling by Special Inspectors Machen and Shepherd, of Washington.

Postmaster Dayton and Inspectors Machen and Shepherd will not go into details concerning Supt. Lee's suspension, but are emphatic in stating that it is not because of any financial irregularities. They assert it is a virtually a question of discipline and re-asserting postal employees on the lines of civil-service reform, and betterment of the service.

Supt. Lee was appointed by Postmaster Dayton, on Sept. 1, 1894. He was formerly Assistant Auditor of the General Post-Office, but resigned twelve years ago. Mr. Lee had one hundred and thirty employees under him.
The inspectors are making up the final report for Postmaster General Bis-

FIRE CAUSED A PANIC.

Hasty Exit, but Little Damage, in a Delancey Street Tenement.

Fire and a panic occurred in the five-story tenement-house, 128 Delancey street, at 10 o'clock to-day, and the wife and two young children of Hermann Schuchel, a striking clockmaker, had a very narrow escape from suffocation.

A dozen other families were compelle to run for their lives from the blinding smoke that filled the rooms, and in the mad rush down the stairways several persons were severely bruised. The members of two families in the rear tenements climbed down the fire-escape ladders to the yard.

It is thought that the fire was caused by one of Schuchel's children playing with matches and setting a mattress fire.

The damage to the building is slight.
